News Summary.

The Court of Rome stifles a rumor of an attempt to poison the Pope. A run of 120 miles was recently made on the Michigan Central Railroad in three hours and forty-nine minutes. Capt. J. M. Hudson, of Philadelphia, intends crossing the ocean in a metallic life-boat, twenty-six feet long and six feet broad. The great suspension bridge over the Mississippi at Cincinnati will cost $1,750,000. There are 32,000 perches of masonry in the work. It is thought Texas will produce the largest cotton crop the coming season of any of the cotton growing States, and South Carolina the smallest. The Boston Pilot says, Thad. Stevens compares Chas. Sumner to a "modern catamount." We suppose he considers himself the ancient catamount. The same paper also says that SANTA ANNA hasn't come here for any political purpose, but to get his wooden leg that BARNUM has been showing. Ex-President PIERCE was confirmed a member of St. Paul's Epis. Church, by Bishop CHASE, at Concord, New Hampshire, on Sunday of last week. A Western critic, in speaking of a new play, says: "The unties are admirably observed; the dullness, which commences in the first act, never flags for a moment until the curtain falls." On Saturday last, an elderly man was found by the police in Boston, in an intoxicated condition, and upon searching him at the station house $10,959.20 was found in his pockets. Bishop ATKINSON, of North Carolina, is going to Europe. His health is such as to make it desirable he should suspend his clerical labors altogether. The farmers in Upper Georgia and North Alabama are plowing up their cotton crops and planting corn instead. Not more than one-fourth of the crop can be counted on in those regions. Judge GIBSON, of Petersburg, is now residing in a villa near Liverpool. General RANDOLPH, at one time Confederate Secretary of War, is living in the same neighborhood. General LONGSTREET, late of the Confederate army, was recently in San Antonio, Texas. The most remarkable circumstance connected with his visit, was a serenade tendered to him by the band of the Fourth United States Cavalry. A facious correspondent in Italy writes to an English journal: "It is said that the cause of GAMBETTA's sudden flight from Capera, was a notification from Head Centre STEPHENS that he was coming to see the general." The marriage of the Princess HELENA, to Prince CHRISTIAN will take place on the 5th of July, prior to which there will be some festivities; among other things a grand State concert at Buckingham Palace, and a grand State ball. We learn by recent advices from England that in the House of Commons every Catholic member from Ireland, with one exception, Mr. McKENNA, voted with the Liberal party in favor of the Reform bill. It is the first time they have voted as a unit since the days of O'CONNELL. The down train Tuesday night from Petersburg to Norfolk had two cars thrown from the track, about twelve miles from Norfolk, by an obstinate bull that tried to butt the engine out of the way. The bull was knocked into a thousand pieces. No body was hurt. The city physicians of Columbus, Ga., report that on the 4th of April there were 57 small pox cases in the hospital; received service, up to May 7th, 31; between those discharged 57, and 6 died; on hand May 7th, 25—total number of cases 88. The Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Virginia is holding its seventy-first annual meeting at this time in Alexandria. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Morrison, D.D., from Matthew xiii. 33. Bishop Johns presided. General PENDLETON is present among the clergy. The returns of the cattle plague in England for the week ending Saturday, the 21st of April, show an increase in the number of new cases as compared with the previous week of 241. There are twenty-two counties in England, Wales and Scotland entirely free from the disease, and in forty-nine counties no cases were reported as occurring during the week. Napoleon has just conferred the title of Duke upon the Count COLONNA WALEWSKI. The Second Empire has thus created seven dukedoms—MALAKOFF, DE MONTMORT (son of Queen CHRISTINA), MAGENTA, DE MORNY, DE PERSIGNY, DE MONTMORIN, and DE COLONNA WALEWSKI. Of this number, two, the dukedoms of MALAKOFF and DE MONTMORIN, have already become extinct. Mr. BEZONER remarked the other day at the Women's Rights Convention in New York, that a woman who is content to wash stockings and make Johnny cakes and bring up her boys, is an undergrown woman, and when she comes to heaven she will spend the first thousand years in getting to that state to which she ought to have attained before she died. Judge SMALLEY, in the United States District Court, now in session at Rochester, N. Y., has ordered the indictment against a party for making false income returns to be quashed. He holds the act of 1862 does not make this an indictable offence. The act of June 30, 1865, does, however, make the offence indictable, but all who made false returns prior to that date escape under this decision. About three thousand dollars were realized by the Fenian demonstration in Jones' Woods on Tuesday last. The money has been turned over to Head Centre STEPHENS, who, in turn, will deposit it in bank. It is reported that Major-General SANDROUD has taken the necessary preliminary steps to bring before a court-martial the officers of the Irish regiment that turned out, contrary to his orders. The Maury county (Tenn.) Herald says: "Among the farmers in the city on Monday last, we were glad to meet General EWELL, so distinguished as a soldier, who is now a resident of 'Old Maury,' and is going largely into stock farming. The General has a magnificent farm, is entering upon his new life with his accustomed energy and zeal, and we hope and predict for him great success. He appears in excellent health and cheerful spirits." A society has been formed by the Hebrew ladies of Richmond for the purpose of caring for the graves of the Jewish soldiers of the Confederate army who have been interred in their cemetery on Shockoe Hill. This society will not come in conflict with the others already formed, but is merely intended for the deceased of their own persuasion, while they have all joined in the general associations for Hollywood and Oakwood, recently established. A London paper says: "In a large glass case, standing in one of the upper chambers of our National Museum, is to be seen the skeleton, decently encased in its original burial clothes, of one PHARAOH MYKERINUS, and surrounded by fragments of the coffin, whereon the name of its occupant can be easily read by the Egyptologists of the present day; affording thereby conclusive evidence that it once contained the mummy of a King who was reigning in Egypt more than a century before the time of ABRAHAM." An old New Yorker, now living at Little Rock, Arkansas, in a letter to the World says: "Sub-agencies of the Freedmen's Bureau are considered worth more than the President's salary. But few, if any, of the plagues can get hands unless they subsidize the Government agents in some way—either as silent partner, or a per centage on the profits of the crop. * * * Some agents are reported to be interested in five to twenty cotton plantations." There is some alarm in England at the probable exhaustion of its coal-fields. The Pall Mall Gazette observes that, "by inevitable inference, the exhaustion of our coal-fields must involve the collapse of our manufacturing and commercial supremacy, and therefore of our national prosperity; and by an equally inevitable inference such exhaustion must ensue, and ensue ere long, if our present increasing ratio of consumption be continued." The Berlin correspondent of the London Times says that some priests of the Greek Church are to be stationed in New York at the expense of the government of Russia, to meet the wants of many Russian subjects whom business or pleasure brings to this part. A church edifice is about to be built, at a cost of $20,000, of which one-tenth is raised by private subscription, and the rest is to be paid by the Russian government, partly, it is said, for the purpose of showing that there is a religious life in the Russian Church. The New York Evening Post, some time since, published an affidavit of one W. N. Nash, contesting the truth of Gen. HARRISON JOHNSON in the letter read by REYNOLDS JOHNSON in the Senate. It now appears that this Nash is a negro, who was formerly a slave. The Evening Post suppressed these facts in giving publicity to the affidavit, and evidenced by that very suppression a consciousness that the testimony of a black would have no weight against the assertions of a gentleman so well and so honorably known as WADE HAMPTON, of South Carolina. The General speaks of matters of which he certainly knows more than any other living person. He has already invited and challenged a fair and honorable investigation of the burning of Columbia, S. C., and it is vain to attempt to convict him upon the statement of a free negro. All communications intended for publication in this journal must be addressed to the Editor of the Daily News, No. 18 Hayne-street, Charleston, S. C. CHARLESTON.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1866.

THE FAIR. The lady members of TRINITY Methodist Church in this city have been very busy during the past few weeks, plying the needle with their nimble fingers, and manufacturing all kinds of curious fancy work. They and their friends have engaged heartily in this labor of love, and we have no doubt that their efforts will be crowned with merited success. The Methodists have never heretofore had a Fair in this city, and would not now resort to this means of procuring aid, if times were more prosperous, or if their members had suffered less by the disasters incident to the late war. It is well known that the Trinity Church building was shelled for many months, and severely injured; that the furniture of all kinds, gas fixtures included, was stolen, and that consequently a large outlay of money was necessary to put the church into thorough repair. This work has been done, but is not yet paid for, and it is to meet this claim that the lady members of the congregation have nobly come forward, and contributed of their substance. We understand there will be many rare and curious things on exhibition at the Fair, and we know that it will repay all our readers to visit Hibernian Hall, and take a survey of the Fair and its treasures. We hope, therefore, that they will all go; open their hearts and their purse-strings, and take ample stock in this excellent charitable enterprise. The Fair is to commence on Wednesday night; and we feel assured it will be one of the most successful ever held in this city. THE GROWING COTTON CROP. If we receive as truth the reports that reach us in regard to the growing Cotton crop, the prospect must be regarded as decidedly unfavorable. In many sections of this State, as well as throughout the Southern Atlantic States, the seed sown has proved worthless or nearly so; and on the lower Mississippi much injury has resulted from high water. The difficulties, as a general thing, in securing regular labor, has caused a falling off in the estimates. From these facts now before us, therefore, we must conclude that, unless a very decided change takes place in the condition of the crop, estimates of a yield of two millions of bales and over must be revised and reduced.

THE MEMPHIS RIOTS. It should be borne in mind that the riot at Memphis was caused by negro soldiers, and not by the resident negro population. The Memphis Argus, remarking upon this fact, pays a high tribute to the colored people belonging in the city. It says they have been, through all the troubles, as respectful, kindly and amicably disposed, in their deportment toward the whites, and in their general conduct, as they ever were. Such has been their uniform good conduct and behavior—save in a few rare instances—that it has become the theme of almost universal remark; and if the negro troops had never been quartered in the city, such a thing as a negro riot would have been unknown. The Memphis Avalanche also speaks kindly of the permanent colored population and urges against violence towards them. It says: "The vengeance which has been threatened the negro, if visited at all, should be upon the unprincipled men who deluded him and brought all these troubles upon his head. The negro is not to blame. He deserves our sympathy. Let the negro who violates the law be punished; but the man who, in retaliation, persecutes the innocent on account of the transgressions of a few bad men, is a brute, and deserves punishment." This is the spirit of the Southern press everywhere. And were it not for the incendiary teachings of Freedmen's Bureau agents and other radical emissaries there would be no outbreaks on the part of the negroes at the South—no jarring of consequence anywhere there between the two races. ANOTHER DESERTER. Governor SWANN, of Maryland, has thrown a bombshell into the Radical camp. He has declared himself unreservedly in favor of the policy of the President, is opposed to negro suffrage and negro equality, and sets his "loyal" face against the enlarged Freedmen's Bureau, the Civil Rights Bill, and the reconstruction scheme of the Committee of Fifteen. Mr. SWANN was the first Governor of Maryland elected under the new constitution—that great outrage on the rights of the people of Maryland—and perhaps it is nothing more than simple justice that the party who placed Mr. SWANN in power should be the first victim of the great fraud they so shamelessly perpetrated. But really, our "unconditional Union" friends are very unfortunate. After putting their man in office, he at once refuses to follow the path they mark out for him to tread. Neither the crack of STEVENS' whip, nor the threats of the imperious SUMNER, are of any avail. The man in office refuses to wear the collar that was placed around his neck when he was seeking "the leaves and fishes." SANTA ANNA AND MAXIMILIAN. SENOR ROMERO, the Minister of the Mexican Republic at Washington, has furnished the Department of State with four letters, written by SANTA ANNA, and published in MAXIMILIAN's newspaper organ. They plainly show that the ex-Mexican Dictator had much to do with the Imperial usurpation in his native country. The first letter, which is dated in July, 1854, confers on Don J. M. GUTIERREZ DE ESTRADA full powers to make proper offers to the Courts of London, Paris, Madrid and Vienna, to obtain from those governments, or any one of them, the establishment of a monarchy in Mexico. The second letter was written by SANTA ANNA in 1861, from St. Thomas, his place of exile, addressed to ASTRADA. He congratulates him on the alliance between France, England and Spain against Mexico, saying that he did not wish to injure Mexican nationality, but to establish a government of order, to repair the damages of party strife, and to restore the Catholic religion. In his third letter, also addressed to ESTRADA, he expresses his approval of MAXIMILIAN as a suitable incumbent of the Mexican throne, and announces his own intention of returning to Mexico, to see with his own eyes the country prosperous and happy. The fourth letter is written to MAXIMILIAN, under date of December, 1863. The writer assures MAXIMILIAN of his entire devotion to him, and expresses the conviction that he will be the means of making the Mexicans happy, and placing his name among the heroes blessed by posterity. THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENT. On the 8th of June the Parliament of Canada will assemble for business. The session will be interesting, from the character of the questions to be discussed and acted upon. The Confederation scheme will be pushed forward by its friends, and as earnestly opposed by the separatists. The passage of laws establishing free trade in certain commodities between British America and the West Indies, British Guiana and possibly Brazil, and the granting of subsidies for a steamship line connecting Halifax with different ports in the West India Islands, will also claim the attention of the members of the body. The fishery question and reciprocal trade between the Canadian provinces and the United States must likewise engross the attention of those who, like us, are intimately and deeply interested in having these questions settled in such a manner as not to disturb the business of the two countries in the future. If the decision of the home authorities should be that this is a matter belonging principally to the provinces, and that they must manage the negotiations, then the coming meeting of the Canadian Parliament will be of intense interest to business men in both countries. The negotiations terminated by the withdrawal of the Canadian agents from Washington, can be reopened by some wise and prudent proposition, and a fresh opportunity offered for the trading and mercantile interests of the two nations to drown the clamor of politicians and settle the controversy upon the basis of mutual advantage to the substantial interests of all concerned.
